

Chhattisgarh Forest Department finds unique way to reuse plastic bottles

08 December 2019

The district forest department of Balrampur in Chhattisgarh has undertaken a unique initiative, where the department is recycling waste plastic bottles to plant saplings at Ramanujganj nursery. The initiative is being undertaken with the help of women workers. The bottles are then cut, and a sapling is planted by filling it with fertile soil. Other parts of the bottle are also used.

Source:<https://www.republicworld.com/india-news/general-news/chhattisgarh-forest-departments-unique-way-of-reusing-plastic.html>