

Forest Dept develops garden in Sanaur

05 July 2019

Officials water a sapling at Sunearheri village. tribune Photo

The Forest Department has developed a garden on one acre after Guru Nanak Dev, first Sikh Guru, at Sunearheri village in Sanaur.

Forest officer Vishal Chauhan said the Sunearheri panchayat gave the department one acre for the garden. He said other panchayats in the district should also learn and come forward.

The official said the department would plant 550 blackberry trees and it would also add to the income of the panchayat.

Source: <https://www.tribuneindia.com/news/chandigarh/forest-dept-develops-garden-in-sanaur/797484.html>