Coimbatore: The state forest department observed National Forest Martyrs Day at the Tamil Nadu Forest Academy (TNFA) on Monday. Family members of 37 forest department staff who died in the line of duty this year, paid floral tributes at the Martyrs Column.

Principal chief conservator of forests (PCCF) and director of TNFA D Sewa Singh joined the families in paying their respects.

The city armed reserve police paid tribute with a guard of honour and a 30-gun salute.

All participants paid a two-minute silent homage to all the martyrs. TNN
