

Saplings planted

Former Superintendent of Highways Department Jotty Kurian recently planted 25 tamarind saplings at a panchayat park in Kangeyampalayam near Sular.

A release said that he retired after 35 years of service in the Highways Department and that he had undertaken a project to plant 250 tamarind saplings in Coimbatore district.