

18 September 2020

'Cauvery Calling': Over 7,000 saplings planted

COIMBATORE

Farmers in Coimbatore and Tiruppur districts planted 7,200 tree saplings as part of the 'Cauvery Calling' agroforestry initiative by the Isha Foundation on Wednesday.

A release said that about 4,000 saplings were planted near Periyanaickenpalayam, 1,200 near Karumathampatti in Coimbatore district and 2,000 near Thekkalur in Tiruppur district.

The saplings were planted to commemorate the second death anniversary of 'Maram' Thangasamy, an environmentalist, who died on September 16, 2018.