

Harita Haram taken up with inspiration from Sevalal: Indrakaran Reddy

24 February 2020

Minister Indrakaran Reddy shakes a leg with Lambadas during the 281st birth anniversary celebrations of Sevalal Maharaj held in Kumram Bheem Asifabad district headquarters on Monday.

Kumram Bheem Asifabad: Minister for Forests, Environment, Endowments and Housing Allola Indrakaran Reddy asked the people to emulate teachings Sevalal Maharaj, spiritual leader of Lambadas, and to carry forward his ideals.

He was addressing a gathering at the 281st birthday celebrations of Sevalal held here on Monday. ZP chairperson Kova Laxmi and Asifabad MLA Athram Sakku also took part in the programme.

Indrakaran Reddy asserted that the TRS government was implementing a slew of schemes for the welfare of Lambadas and to develop the community. He said that it had embarked on massive plantation drive, Telanganaku Harita Haram, by drawing inspiration from Sevalal, who was lover of nature.

He added that the plantation initiative was aiming at raising green cover of State from 24 percent to 33 percent.

The Minister assured to grant for constructing Banjara Bhavan in Kumram Bheem-Asifabad district headquarters after being requested by leaders of the community. He informed that Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao would convene a meeting to resolve long pending Podu cultivation problem soon. He stated that the vandalised statue of Ram Raj Maharaj would be restored in Sirpur (U) mandal soon.

Earlier, members of organising committee of the event felicitated Indrakaran Reddy and other dignitaries including Adilabad ZP Chairperson Janardhan Rathod, Former MP Ramesh Rathod, Collector Sandeep Kumar Jha and Kova Laxmi were present at the programme where artistes of Lambada showcased special programmes reflecting rich culture and tradition, which enthralled the audiences.

Lambadas spiritual guru Prem Singh Maharaj, District Forest Officer L Ranjeet Nayak, Banjara Seva Sangh State president Shyam Naik, Revenue Divisional Officer Dattu, District Intermediate Education Officer Gopal and many others were also present.

Source: <https://telanganatoday.com/harita-haram-taken-up-with-inspiration-from-sevalal-indrakaran-reddy>