

Farmers visit tree-based agri farms

About 55 farmers from several parts of the state participated in the Isha Agro Movement (IAM), an initiative to transform the state into a natural agricultural state, organized by Isha yoga centre recently. The objective of the programme was to raise awareness about the tree-based agriculture and multi-tier cultivation models of farming. The farmers visited the plantations in Udumalapet, Kinathukadavu, Anaimalai and Pollachi areas where crops are cultivated under the guidance of Isha Agro Forestry. TNN
